ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The 6th International Ferro Alloys Conference (IFAC 2026) returns with a renewed vision, uniting the global ferro alloys community at a powerful nexus of ideas, innovation, and industry leadership. Organized by the Indian Ferro Alloy Producers' Association (IFAPA), the conference will take place in Goa from 16-18 September 2026, transforming the city into a strategic meeting ground for decision-makers, producers, traders, and policymakers to collaboratively shape the future of the ferro alloys sector.

CONFERENCE FOCUS

IFAC 2026 steps beyond traditional discussions, spotlighting the forces reshaping the industry. From shifting global trade winds and evolving regulations to the race toward sustainability and breakthrough technologies, the conference will explore the opportunities, market shifts and strategic pathways defining tomorrow's ferro alloys landscape.

CONFERENCE THEME

Fueling India's Steel Surge: The Rising Importance of Ferro Alloys

As India accelerates its journey to become a global steel powerhouse, ferro alloys stand at the heart of strength, scale, and sustainability. Amid energy transition, decarbonization pressures, and evolving global trade, the sector is redefining its strategic role in nation-building. IFAC 2026 will spotlight how innovation, cleaner production, resource security, and resilient supply chains can unlock new value and competitiveness, bringing the industry together at a critical inflection point to align strategy, technology, and sustainability in shaping the future of India's steel-led growth.

KEY DISCUSSION AREAS

- Global & Indian Steel Industry Outlook
Latest steel demand-supply trends, capacity expansion, downstream consumption patterns, and their impact on ferro alloys.
- Global Trade Outlook & Supply Chain Risks
Tariff shifts, logistics disruptions, geopolitics affecting trade flows, and risk mitigation strategies.
- Manganese Ore & Ferro Manganese/Silico Manganese Market Overview
Production dynamics, pricing trends, import dependencies, and evolving supply dynamics.
- Chrome Ore & Ferro Chrome Market Scenario
Global raw material availability, regulatory developments, and competitiveness of Indian producers.
- Ferro Silicon – Depleting production and increasing dependence on imports
Production/Raw material dynamics, pricing trends, import dependencies, and evolving supply dynamics.
- Critical Minerals & Noble Alloys
Availability, global sourcing risks, government policies, and their influence on alloy production security.
- Power Market Dynamics
Impact of rising energy costs, renewable integration, captive power strategies, and policy implications for ferro alloys.
- Decarbonization & CBAM
Low-carbon production pathways, emission reduction technologies, EU CBAM impact on Indian exports, and compliance readiness.
- Emerging Technologies & Digital Transformation
Automation, AI-driven process optimization, and digital tools reshaping production efficiency.

WHAT TO EXPECT?

500+ Participants

350+ Companies

35+ Speakers

10+ Knowledge Sessions

20+ Exhibitors

15+ Networking Hours

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE

- Leading Ferro-alloys Producers & Global Traders
Engage with key market players driving the ferro-alloys value chain.
- Manganese & Chromium Ore Miners and Traders
Connect with raw material consumers shaping future supply dynamics.
- Technology & Metallurgical Equipment Manufacturers
Showcase innovations that power next-generation alloy production.
- International Ores & Ferro-alloys Institutes and Associations
Exchange knowledge and collaborate on global industry advancements.
- Service Providers & Logistics Enterprises
Explore solutions that enhance efficiency, movement, and market reach.
- Steel Manufacturers & Trading Firms
Align with the core consumer segment of the ferro-alloys sector
- Banks, Consultants & Industry Analysts
Gain insights into market trends, risk management, and investment opportunities.
- End-users & Key Suppliers of Ferro Alloys
Build strategic partnerships and discover new sourcing avenues.
